

RAINY RIVER FIRST NATIONS

Invites applications for the position of

EARLY INTERVENTION & AFTERCARE WORKER

Reporting to the Director of Treatment and Recovery Services, the Early Intervention & Aftercare Worker is responsible for addictions and mental health counselling. Substance abuse assessment, pre-treatment services and aftercare and relapse prevention services are a priority.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- A minimum two-year Addictions or Social Work Diploma or related field;
- A minimum two years' experience in the field of addictions or a combination of training and experience in working with First Nations.
- Comprehensive knowledge of issues related to addiction and recovery;
- Knowledge of Rainy River First Nation and the community's culture, beliefs and traditional lifestyles;
- Must have excellent communication skills, both written and verbal.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS:

- Must be able to provide current Criminal Reference Check satisfactory to the First Nation;
- Must adhere to the Rainy River First Nations' Drug Testing Policy;
- Must have the ability to work flexible work hours, which may include evenings and weekends;
- Must have valid driver's license and access to a vehicle.

Please apply in writing by 4:00 P.M., Friday, May 24, 2019. Applications must include a cover letter, current resume, three (3) employment related references, two of which must be from a current or recent supervisor with written permission to contact the references.

Complete Job Description available upon request.

Please submit application to:

Verna DeBungie

Rainy River First Nations

P.O. Box 450

Emo ON POW 1E0

Email: v.debungie@rrfns.com

For further information, please contact Taylor Connell – HR Officer at (807) 482-2479 ext. 249.

We thank all applicants but only those invited for an interview will be contacted.

The Rainy River First Nations is an equal opportunity employer.